MUMBAI
GLOBAL CONFERENCE
REPORT

AVAILABLE NOW

2015 Global Conference, Mumbai Report

The “Advanced Leadership Field Perspectives: Public Health in India” report, covering the June 16 - 19, 2015 Mumbai Global Conference is available now. This report outlines the multi-day Global Conference that capitalized on India’s sense of dynamism infused by the new administration, with themes that focused on health but also related to business and governance. Presenters included public health leaders/advocates to discuss the challenges in public health, policy leaders to review governance issues, and perspectives from business leaders. In addition, the trip involved some field visits to community sites and public health projects around Mumbai.

SAVE THE DATE

2016 Inaugural Advanced Leadership Coalition Conference and Cross-Cohort Exchange Wednesday, May 11 10:00 am– Friday, May 13, 3:00 pm Harvard University, Cambridge, MA

* Cross-Cohort Exchange is open to all Past AL Fellows and Partners.

Please make plans to join us for the inaugural Advanced Leadership Coalition Conference and Cross-Cohort Exchange in May!

The Advanced Leadership Coalition Conference will feature:

- An educational program with top speakers discussing the latest in relevant fields, such as:
- the best of the Harvard Kennedy School on the U.S. presidential election and its implications for the world; global health successes and remaining challenges; race, gender, identity and class on college campuses; digital developments
- Initial meetings of interest/sector clusters, to exchange ideas, compare experiences, make connections, organize for next steps
- Presentations by AL Fellows from every cohort providing updates on their projects
- Coaching sessions for those who want comments and mentoring on their projects
- Cross-cohort exchange (CCX) in which 2016 AL Fellows present their initial ideas, and you mentor them on the spot or make connections for later involvement
- Theme dinners with crowd-sourcing/brainstorming solutions to big problems, and chances for your input on planning of the Advanced Leadership Coalition

The conference and initial AL Coalition membership is open to all cohorts’ Fellows and Partners, and free of charge. Spouses who weren’t AL Partners can be included in some of the conference events for a modest fee. But be sure to book hotel rooms soon, as this is a popular time in Greater Boston.

Ken Kelley
2015 AL Fellow

Ken Kelley was recently elected to the Board of Trustees at the Sabin Vaccine Institute, in Washington DC, a non-profit, organization of scientists, researchers and advocates dedicated to reducing human suffering from vaccine-preventable and neglected tropical diseases. Ken was elected due to his work in global health, biosecurity and the market inefficiency leading to a lack of vaccines against neglected tropical diseases and emerging pandemic threats.

Keith Raffel
2015 AL Fellow

Keith Raffel wrote an opinion piece for Harvard Magazine, "On Crimson Careerism," in which he discusses the changes he's seen in the student body from his time as a Harvard undergraduate to his AL Fellowship year. Raffel expresses his observation in the shifting of Harvard College from a place of academic exploration to one focused upon vocational activities. He calls for Harvard to re-establish a campus culture where students understand that their future success may well be measured by value and not by dollars.

John Conley
2014 AL Fellow

John Conley serves as the Chief Operating Officer for Entrepreneurship for All (EforAll), an organization dedicated to accelerating economic and social impact through entrepreneurship in mid-sized cities. John joined EforAll in 2015 and is responsible for building the organization's infrastructure. Current programs include: Entrepreneurial awareness building events, twice yearly accelerator programs, where 15-20 entrepreneurs work with mentors and experts to move their ventures forward quickly, first in the nation Spanish language entrepreneurship programs, and a co-working space for local entrepreneurs, at the EforAll office in Lowell, Massachusetts.

EforAll has been recently featured in the press for its accomplishments, including a front page article in the Herald News - Fall River and The Lynn Daily Item.

Laurent Adamowicz
2010 AL Fellow

Laurent Adamowicz, Founder and CEO of Bon'App, presented a TED Talk at TEDxBeaconStreet titled "Secondary Sugar Kills" In the talk, Adamowicz addresses the daunting truths and dangers behind sugar that's hidden and added - or what he calls "secondary sugar" - in our foods, from burgers and pizza, to salad dressing, soup, crackers, bread, and even infant formula.

In response to these stumbling facts, Adamowicz has recently launched EChO - Eradicate Childhood Obesity Foundation, Inc. that aims to address this shocking reality through political action, education, research, and outreach. This 501 (c)(3) not-for-profit foundation has recently launched the Front Label Act that aims to increase transparency in our foods.

Paul Irving
2010 AL Fellow

Paul Irving recently penned an article for the Huffington Post, "The Right Road For A Better Future Of Aging." In the piece, Irving discusses increased longevity in global aging and how this demographic shift will have massive long-term impacts on government budgets, living standards, individual health and well-being, and economic and social stability. He calls for reshaping the future of aging that advances public health, creates age friendly homes and communities, enables and encourages lifelong learning, work, and entrepreneurship, and promotes purposeful engagement and volunteerism.

Frank Dobbin
Professor of Sociology
Faculty of Arts and Sciences,
Harvard University
Co - Chair, Harvard Advanced
Leadership Initiative

Frank Dobbin received his B.A. from Oberlin College in 1980 and his Ph.D. from Stanford University in 1987. Dobbin studies organizations, inequality, economic behavior, and public policy. His Inventing Equal Opportunity (Princeton 2009) shows how corporate personnel managers defined what it meant to discriminate. With Alexandra Kalev, he is developing an evidence-based approach to diversity management. Innovations that make managers part of the solution, such as mentoring programs, diversity taskforces, and special recruitment programs, have helped to promote diversity in firms, while programs signaling that managers are part of the problem, such as diversity training and diversity performance evaluations, have not. These findings have been covered by The New York Times, The Washington Post, The Boston Globe, Le Monde, CNN, and National Public Radio.

Message from the Chair and Director

If you have not had the opportunity to acquaint yourself with the 2016 cohort, I encourage you to read more about them on the Advanced Leadership Initiative website here:

<http://advancedleadership.harvard.edu/fellows>

As we welcome the 2016 cohort of 48 internationally and professionally diverse AL Fellows, we value your recommendations and referrals for the 2017 cohort. We seek experienced leaders who are transitioning from their income-earning years to their next years of service, and who want to apply their talents to major social challenges. Below is a link to electronic nomination information. The file contains key facts about the Fellowship, Faculty leaders, Fellows to date, and an opportunity to nominate potential candidates. We hope you will keep this nomination information on file and refer candidates. If you would like hard copies of this nomination information, please contact any of the ALI staff (main office phone 617-496-5479) who will be glad to assist you.
