Boston suffers in shock at the senseless bombings at Boston Marathon, but there is resilience to be found and many acts of kindness. All of the ALI community mourns the victims, including a Harvard Business School staff member’s daughter and an 8-year-old Dorchester boy at a school City Year serves, who are among those who lost their lives. ALI also celebrates the heroes, and vows to continue to work to make the world a better place.

- Rosabeth Moss Kanter
  Chair and Director, Advanced Leadership Initiative
  Ernest L. Arbuckle Professor of Business Administration
  Harvard Business School

Innovations in Health Care and Aging Think Tank
April 4 - April 5, 2013

More photos inside
Please join the Advanced Leadership Initiative for the following upcoming events, open to all AL Fellows and Partners, past and present:

THINK TANK

THIS WEEK

Think Tank II: Education as a Civil Right
Thursday, April 25 - Saturday, April 27

“Is Education a Civil Right?” is a pioneering collaboration of faculty from Harvard’s Graduate School of Education, Law School, and Business School to generate discussion of these issues. It is co-chaired by (alphabetically) HBS Professor Rosabeth Moss Kanter, HLS Professor Charles J. Ogletree, Jr., and HGSE Professor Fernando Reimers and will feature distinguished Harvard faculty and national and global experts. Saturday features the principal, teachers, student and parent from the high school mentioned in President Obama’s State of the Union address - among other special sessions unlike any ALI has held in the past.

For more details about this upcoming Think Tank and to register, please visit our website here:
http://advancedleadership.harvard.edu/events/

CROSS-COHORT EXCHANGE

Thursday, May 16 - Friday, May 17

This annual collaboration is a highly exciting event that relies on the voices of past AL Fellows, provides opportunities for AL Fellows, past and present, to swap project ideas, find new synergies, and have a wonderful pre-Shanghai reunion with your colleagues. This two-day event includes a special dinner and many exciting activities.

To register, please visit our website here:
http://advancedleadership.harvard.edu/events/

Please continue to check the ALI events page, as new information about the Cross-Cohort Exchange will be posted on the site as it becomes available.

GLOBAL CONFERENCE IN SHANGHAI: CHINA EVOLVING

ONLY A FEW SEATS LEFT

Monday, June 10 - Friday, June 14

This unique, multi-day event highlights a changing China and educates and empowers you to impact the world. Attendees will embark on engaging field visits to organizations and settings around Shanghai that illuminate themes discussed in expert panels led by Harvard faculty members.

To register, please visit:
http://advancedleadership.harvard.edu/events/
Call for Nominations

The Advanced Leadership Initiative continues to seek the help of our valued network to help the faculty board to identify distinguished candidates for the prestigious Advanced Leadership Fellowship for the 2014 cohort. We seek experienced leaders who are transitioning from their income-earning years to their next years of service, and who want to apply their talents to major social challenges. We have already welcomed our calendar-year 2013 cohort of 33 internationally and professionally diverse AL Fellows. Your thoughts and referrals for the 2014 cohort will be much appreciated at any time over the next months.

Below is a link to electronic nomination information. The file contains key facts about the Fellowship, lists of Fellows to date, faculty leaders, and a response form. We hope you will keep this nomination information on file and refer candidates.

If you would like a hard copy of this nomination information, please contact Fellowship Director John Kendzior (john_kendzior@harvard.edu; direct phone 617-496-2452) or any of the ALI staff (main office phone 617-496-5479) will be glad to assist you.

ELECTRONIC NOMINATION INFORMATION
http://advancedleadership.harvard.edu/Portals/115252/docs/2014_Nomination_Kit.pdf
Fellows’ News

2010 FELLOWS

Laurent Adamowicz
In March, Laurent Adamowicz, presented “What has your food been eating?” at TEDxBeaconStreet. Laurent discusses how our food system has dramatically changed over the last two decades and he poses the question: Could the obesity epidemic be directly linked to what our food has been eating?

To watch the Laurent’s presentation, click here: http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=56UL0IIPyG4

Laurent’s Bon’ App recently launched a pilot program in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. The program aims to help citizens make better food choices by showing them the contents of their food through simple language of calories, sugar, salt, and bad fat.

Read the full article from WAFB Channel 9, the CBS network affiliate in Baton Rouge here: http://www.wafb.com/story/21757936/health-app-launches-pilot-program-in-br

Read more about the pilot program, which will be run through the East Baton Rouge Parish Library, here: http://ebrpl.libguides.com/bonapp

Doug Rauch
Doug Rauch recently spoke at “Conscious Capitalism 2013” in San Francisco April 4 and April 5. The multi-day event is designed for business owners, executives, non-profits, students and others who want to understand the principles of Conscious Capitalism and how to apply them. Doug serves as the CEO for the organization, a non-profit dedicated to cultivating the theory and practice of Conscious Capitalism.

To watch video of the event, visit: http://www.consciouscapitalism.org/cc2013/video

2011 FELLOWS

James Rosenstein
James submitted his corporate social responsibility (CSR) documentary project to the Harvard Law Documentary Studio, and has received helpful and positive feedback. He has also been in touch with potential producers, who have shown strong interest. Momentum is strong, even though it takes time.

In addition, James has become involved in an interesting internet startup created by a physician who completed his Ph.D. at Harvard and MIT. The platform he developed aims to revolutionize the practice of clinical research for the development of new medicines. Its aims are social as well as practical.

If any Fellows, past or present, have an interest in CSR-related issues or innovations in clinical research, please contact Michael Perry at ALI at michael_perry@harvard.edu and he will connect you.

2012 FELLOWS

Anne Greenwood
Anne was recently featured in “LearnVest,” an online platform to help women everywhere gain control of their finances. In the article, Anne discusses the importance of career coaching and how it helped her to change direction and find the Harvard Advanced Leadership Initiative.

Read the full article here: http://www.learnvest.com/2013/03/why-hiring-a-career-coach-was-the-best-thing-i-ever-did/
Carol Raphael
On March 12, President Obama announced his intent to appoint Carol Raphael, among other accomplished leaders, to a key administration post as a member of the Commission on Long-Term Care. President Obama said, “I am proud that such experienced and committed individuals have agreed to serve the American people in these important roles. I look forward to working with them in the months and years ahead.”

Read the full press release here:
http://www.whitehouse.gov/the-press-office/2013/03/12/president-obama-announces-more-key-administration-posts

Carol talked to AARP in further detail about her new appointment, and provided a preview of what’s ahead.

Read the full Q&A here:
http://blog.aarp.org/2013/03/20/qa-carol-raphael-long-term-care-commissioner/

Steven Strauss
Throughout April, Steven Strauss wrote two articles for the Huffington Post conveying his viewpoints about the digital “currency” Bitcoin, as well as his opinions on drug testing for corporate welfare recipients as well as ordinary Americans.

Read the full articles here:
“Nine Trust-Based Problems with Bitcoin”
http://www.huffingtonpost.com/steven-strauss/bit-coin_b_3081812.html

“Shouldn’t We Drug Test CEOs of Banks Receiving Federal Aid?”
http://www.huffingtonpost.com/steven-strauss/drug-testceos_b_3034127.html
Advanced Leadership Faculty News

Professor Rosabeth Moss Kanter
Chair and Director, ALI
Ernest L. Arbuckle Professor of Business Administration
Harvard Business School

Professor Kanter is one of seven individuals who will receive honorary degrees at the University of Michigan – Ann Arbor, her alma mater, on May 4 at Michigan Stadium.

To reach the full announcement, please visit:

Professor William W. George
Executive Board, ALI
Professor of Management Practice
Harvard Business School

Professor George recently wrote an article for the Huffington Post. George’s article, “Resilience Through Mindful Leadership” examines the importance of developing resilient employees and leaders in order to build and maintain successful businesses and organizations.

To read the full article, please visit:
http://www.huffingtonpost.com/bill-george/resilience-through-mindful-leadership-b_2932269.html

Professor David Gergen
Co-Chair, ALI
Public Service Professor of Public Leadership
Director, Center for Public Leadership
Harvard Kennedy School

Professor Gergen wrote an article for CNN.com lauding the resiliency of Boston and its residents in the wake of the Boston Marathon bombings.

Read the full article here:

Gergen will speak and receive an honorary degree May 19, at Gettysburg College’s 178th Commencement.